About the Medal of Honor Society Convention:

The Medal of Honor Society Convention annually convenes and honors Medal of Honor Recipients for their exceptional valor and courage while serving in the Armed Services of the United States. The convention serves to uphold and preserve the dignity of the honor and its recipients. Special time is taken to memorialize those who have passed in the previous year.

It's especially significant that Gettysburg, PA was chosen as the 2013 Convention location since the year will commemorate the 150th Anniversary of the historic Battle of Gettysburg and President Lincoln's Gettysburg Address. It will also mark President Lincoln's presentation of the Medal of Honor awards to over fifty recipients (including the only woman) chosen for their courage during the Gettysburg battle. The Medal of Honor Society Convention in 2013 will also be a fitting tribute to the men and women who have and who continue to fight for our country and the countless sacrifices they and their families have made.
